Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am ordering several of your books after reading the two latest, Case Open, and Never Again, both of which I found amazing in that you had used only the Warren Report to convict its verdict instead of discovering "new" evidence. Most people would gloss over the "official" record after denouncing it, without putting in the study and analysis you have, which I find very impressive.

While I do believe much has been suppressed, and possibly even altered or destroyed, there was so much fabricated, or testimonies selectively included, along with obvious obfuscations, padding, and hindrances (no index of volumes, etc) to make one totally distrust the methods and conclusions of the entire Report.

I say a humble "thank you" for your life-long probing into the matter, and look forward to reading your earlier writings.

Sincerely,
